SOUTH RUMFORD
The Grange annual ball and oyster supper was held Wednesday night of last week at the Grange Hall at Rumford Center, with a good attendance. Supper was served from 6 to 8 o'clock, followed by dancing with music by Webster Learned. William Bartlett and several others. The committee in charge were Mrs. and Mrs. George Hoyt, Mr. and Mrs.
Webster Learned, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Edward, Evelyn Kinnell, Isabelle French, Stewart Martin and Donald Thurston. Cake
and ice cream were served at intermission.
The dining room and dance hall were prettily decorated with streamers of colored paper and the five tables in the dining room each had a large vase of carnations, which were presented by Mr.
and Mrs. Eugene Davis.

The Art Craft Club was entertained by Mrs. Bertha Allen in Virginia last Thursday, with nine present. The roads were so bad that not many of the South Rum-ford members attended.

The regular monthly business meeting
of the Community Club was postponed
Thursday evening on account of the muddy roads.

NORTH PARIS
A pretty home wedding took place at the home of the bride's grandmother,
Mrs. F. L. Cotton, Tuell Town Corner,
March 15th, at 3 p. m., when Myron Herick and Ethlyn Gibbs were united in marriage. The room was prettily decorated by the grandmother in blue and white crepe paper on cedar with a large white wedding bell under which the bride and groom stood. Those present were the groom's mother, the bride's mother,
two brothers and sister, an uncle of the bride, and a friend, Windsor Abbott.
The bride was dressed in blue silk, while
the groom had a dark blue serge suit.
The double ring service was used. Rev.
G. C. Smith of West Paris was the officiating clergyman.

BOYS' and GIRLS' Camps
A survey made by certain business men brought out the fact that the Boys' and Girls' Camps within 15 miles of Bridgton paid in the 1929 season THREE MILLION DOL-LARS.

However, during 1929, the Mutual Savings Banks in Maine paid to their depositors in DIVIDENDS some FOUR MILLION, EIGHT HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS.

WEST PARIS—HIGH STREET

Mrs. Laura McKee has finished work at Mrs. Charles Marshall's and gone to her home in Bethel.

SUMMER

Edgar Barrett is hauling his birch with his truck to the Tobitts mill here in the Thompson pasture. It is said there are nearly one thousand cords of birch in the mill yard at this time.

About one and a half years ago when Russell Edwards of Otisfield was hired to take charge of the birch mill crew, here, for the Tobitts Co., he brought nearly a full crew of help with him, and from that on the little settlement was called Mill village. No. 1 burned last July, it belonged to Howard Grover. Last spring Donald Varney bought camp No. 4 from Ed. Davis; last fall George Spaulding bought camp No. 2 from Philip Bailey and quite recently George also bought camp No. 3 from Roger Allard.

Jerry Bartlett shot a crow with his rifle at a distance of 21 rods, Monday morning.

Sunday callers at Emerson Bartlett's were Edward Millett, Linn Farrar's steers, and his brother, Junior, each were swinging the goat over a handsome pair of Linn's steers. The boys said they had another pair of steers up in the barn, but their yoke was covered up in the hay.

Charles Russell, Wesley Poland and Pat Myers were also callers.

Cal Russell, when met upon the street, Monday, said times were pretty dull and he had just been over and traded roasters with Linn Farrar, got to make a dollar some way.

Mrs. Emerson Bartlett and little daughter, Grace and Gertrude, called upon Mrs. Bartlett's daughter, Mrs. Charles Russell, Sunday afternoon, also Mrs. Cal Russell.

Eggs are quoted at the ridiculous low price of 24 cents per dozen at East Sumner; the dealer says that is the lowest he ever knew them to be during the fifteen or sixteen years he has been in business, there. Potatoes are said to be one dollar and a half per bushel.

Serve foods which have to be carved on platters large enough to allow the carver to stand around a roast, food, which are likely to have their appearance spoiled in carving, or get in the way of the carver.

Only 1 MORE DAY to see our Special Frigidaire Hydrator Demonstration

Our special demonstration of the Frigidaire Hydrator ends at 10 P. M. next Saturday. Don't miss this opportunity to see the Hydrator actually in use. See how it makes even wilted vegetables crisp and fresh... how it keeps them that way until used.

And, while you're here, examine the beautiful cabinets in Porcelain-on-steel inside and out. See the famous "Cold Control" in operation. See how it speeds the freezing of ice—how it enables you to make a wide variety of frozen desserts that require extreme cold.

And don't fail to taste the new and different salads and desserts we're serving. Don't forget to ask for your free copies of our two new recipe books. If possible, come in today. We're open evenings until 10 o'clock.

SPECIAL OFFER until Saturday, March 22nd

We are prepared to make a liberal special offer to all who buy Frigidaire during our 9-day demonstration. Let us tell you about this offer. Let us tell you about our easy payment plan. Come in at your first opportunity. We will be open evenings until ten o'clock every day of the demonstration.
